RESOLUTION #47: Minutes from the October 8th have been approved

COMMUNICATION: none

PUBLIC: Josh Lewis spoke to the board about looking into setting up a bylaw that would protect residents from having cell towers installed too close to their homes which also causes real estate home values to decrease. Josh is currently speaking to Town of Marshall and also Town of Augusta as these towers also cause health issues. What he is suggesting is that the bylaw would state they have to be at least 1200 feet away from homes and not be over 200 feet tall. The board stated they would be glad to speak with Langey our lawyer about this idea and they will also work with Josh and the other towns to come up with ideas at future meetings.

TOWN HIGHWAY SUPERINTENDENT: Karl Buschor absent

CODES: Dan Ford absent

PLANNING BOARD: Gene Whipple just informed the board of the date for Atkinson to be at court which is November 29th

ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS: Paul Gallagher absent
